

SENATORIAL CANVASS.

We have not been able to hear the candidates for the Senate address the people, but are gratified to learn, and take great pleasure in informing our readers, that the "work goes bravely on." They addressed the citizens of Roanoke and vicinity on Wednesday; of Boone's Lick Township yesterday, and to-day they speak in Monticello Township. We have received a communication giving an account of the speaking at Roanoke, but it came too late for to-day's paper. Gen. Clark "poured the hot shot" into Mr. Jackson, to the entire satisfaction and delight of the Whigs, and the perceptible mortification of the Democrats. The act of the last session to sustain the credit of the State, (which will be found in another column), was discussed, and the injustice of its provisions, in taxing Clerks, Journeymen Mechanics, Ministers of the Gospel, Overseers, Doctors, &c., was made so apparent that Mr. Jackson promised, if elected, to go for its repeal. His excuse for voting for the law was noticed; it was that, he said, or the wheels of government must stop. The government has been in the hands of his party a number of years; they got possession of it when it was out of debt; the taxes have been increased and increased; they have not expended a cent for the improvement of the country; and yet the State is in debt nearly a MILLION OF DOLLARS, and an act has to be passed, to keep the wheels rolling, which is so infamous in its character, that we have yet to find a single man hardy enough to support it! This is what democracy has done for Missouri;—and the very men who have aided in all this, ask still to be trusted!

Other subjects of State policy were discussed, and Mr. Jackson's positions exposed. On no single point did he sustain himself; but when driven to the wall, "acknowledged the corn," and begged to be trusted once more, and he would repeal obnoxious laws, and keep a sharp look out in future. These, of course, are not his words, but the substance of them.

We hope as many as can possibly do so, will hear them speak to-day.

STILL THEY COME.

Mr. Holmes, the ablest Representative of the South Carolina Delegation in a speech made on the 28th ultimo, in the House of Representatives, on the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, charged that the Mexican war was brought on and precipitated "by the rashness of the President." In closing his speech he paid an eloquent tribute to Taylor in his civil, military and social character, and proclaimed his intention to support him for the Presidency!

MARTIN GROVE, an old, highly respectable and influential democrat of this county, addressed the people, at the court-house, on Monday last, in behalf of the Old Hero of Buena Vista. He said that he knew Gen. Taylor, was with him at Fort Harrison in 1812, and if the old general still retained the moral worth, sterling integrity, manly bearing, firmness, and decision of character, so fully manifested on the occasion, he was just the man to fill the Presidential chair; and the very man to disenthral our country from the difficulties by which it is surrounded. He said he was a democrat, and didn't intend to forsake one democratic principle, but would certainly vote for Gen. Taylor unless providentially hindered.—Paris Mercury.

The Worcester, Massachusetts Convention of disaffected whigs and democrats, adjourned without naming any one for the Presidency.

Judge Dysart passed through this place Wednesday, on his way to the lower part of the county.

Major Rollins and Judge King are in St. Louis. The Major followed him there, and intends again to invite him to travel with him. King would do it.

FROM MEXICO.

The discontented spirits of Mexico are at work. Parades and Jarata have got up a revolution, and taken possession of the State of Guanajuato. A proclamation has been issued denouncing the government for consenting to the Treaty. Fears are entertained that the revolutionists will overthrow the government. Bands of robbers infest the roads.

LATEST FROM FRANCE.

Paris is still agitated. Prince Louis Napoleon has resigned his seat in the Assembly, and this has postponed the troubles.

There are six candidates for the Presidency in the Field—Lamartine, Thiers, Louis Napoleon, Marrast, Gen. Cavaignac and ex-Prefect of Police.

The Orleans party will support Thiers, especially as Beranger has declined in his favor. The Legitimists are divided between Thiers and Lamartine, if the election were soon to come off, but little doubt exists that Louis Napoleon would be the successful candidate.

The constitution has been amended in such a manner, that if neither one of the candidates secure a majority of the public votes the five candidates receiving the largest vote, shall be returned to the National Assembly, and from one of these five a President shall be chosen.

Prince Louis Napoleon has been elected Col. of the 4th legion of the National Guards.

A new candidate for popular favor is spoken of in the person of a son of Prince Eugene Beauharnais.

Why is troy weight like a thief. Because it happens to have no scruples.

Why is a snow bank in spring like a thrifty tree? Because it leaves.

VICTIM OF "CIRCUMSTANCES."

On his route home General Cass was received with civil and military honors at Cleveland. He was escorted to his hotel, and formally introduced to the people from the balcony, by Reuben Wood late Chief Justice of that State, who is a political friend of the General.

Judge Wood having briefly and pertinently presented the Presidential Candidate to the people and tendered to him the hospitalities of the city turned to the nominee, and thus frankly and pointedly addressed him:—

"Sir permit me on this occasion to call your attention to the fact that our political opponents declare that you are opposed to the improvement of our Western Rivers and Harbors; and that we have always met this declaration with the assurance that Gen. Lewis Cass as a Western man, was fully identified with the interests of the West, and could not be opposed to the improvement so much needed by the people of the West, and of the whole country."

"It may not be improper for me, Sir, to allude to one more topic, which is, especially to this immediate district, a topic of the deepest interest—[refer to the institution of Slavery. We are told, Sir, that should you secure the election to the Presidency of the United States, your administration would lend its influence to the extension and perpetuation of human slavery."

"The people here assembled will with the greatest pleasure now listen to any communication which, Sir, it may be your pleasure to submit."

To the charges, thus publicly repeated, and by a distinguished political friend, Gen. Cass responded as follows:

"Sir, the noise and confusion which pervades this assembly will prevent my being heard on the important topics to which you have called my attention. I must therefore content myself with thanking you for the generous reception which I, the unworthy representative of the great Democratic party of the country, have received at your hands."

"I hope you have all read the letter which I addressed to the National Democratic Convention. I declare that to be the close of my political PROFESSIONS."

To a polite invitation to attend the great Chicago Convention, he replied as follows:

DETROIT, May 17th.

DEAR SIR— I am much obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the convention on inter alia improvements, which will meet in Chicago in July. Circumstances, however, will put it out of my power to be present at that time.

I am, dear sir, respectfully yours,

LEWIS CASS.

To a like invitation to attend a gathering of his political friends in Philadelphia—

WASHINGTON, May 30.

DEAR SIR: I am much obliged to you for your kind invitation to attend the mass meeting at Philadelphia on the 10th day of June, but circumstances will prevent the pleasure of being present on that occasion.

I am, dear sir, respectfully yours,

LEWIS CASS.

John Campbell, Esq., Secretary, &c., Philadelphia.

"Circumstances" will prevent his being at Washington on the 4th of March next.

We learn from the Paris Mercury, that the whigs of Jackson township, have nominated a candidate for constable. This is carrying party organization further than we have ever known in these parts.—Plate Argus.

You ought to live in "these parts," Mr. Argus, and you would hear of some right shrewd party work in reference to Constables: not by whigs, either.

H. W. Smith, of Glasgow, declines being a candidate for the Legislature. The Democrat contains a call for Owen Rawlings.

HUNTSVILLE, July 10, 1848.

Messrs. Green & Shirley:—

We had a rousing meeting here on Saturday. The Whig thunder had stirred up the natives, and they swarmed in from every hill and hollow.

The Taylor Fever is raging here, and my impression is, it will carry off many of the Cassites. Huntsville has not witnessed such a large concourse of people for years, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout this great crowd.

Let but the friends of "Old Zack" in every part of the State come up to their duty as manfully and zealously as they will in this section, and if we are not mistaken, there will be a good prospect for a Buena Vista defeat of the enemy in November, at least.

BOWELL COMPLAINTS occur more frequently during the summer months than at any other period, because at this season the system being debilitated digestion is not sufficiently active to dispose of the food before it becomes putrid; hence a peculiar acid is generated in the stomach, which is the cause of those horrid diseases called dysentery, cholera morbus, inflammation of the bowels, &c. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a natural remedy, and therefore a certain cure for bowel complaints; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels from those putrid humors which are the cause of the above distressing complaints. Consequently, as they remove the cause of every form of disease, it is impossible for them to fail in making a perfect cure.

Beware of Counterfeits.—THE ONLY ORIGINAL AND GENUINE INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS HAVE THE SIGNATURE OF WILLIAM WRIGHT WRITTEN WITH A PEN ON THE TOP LABEL OF EACH BOX. None other is genuine, and to counterfeit this is FODDERY.

The genuine is for sale by BOON, TALBOT & SMITH, sole agents for Fayette; D. C. CHAMPION, Champion's Mill; S. CARROLL, Glasgow; FELIX REDDING, Keytesville; M. T. ATKINS, Brunswick; and wholesale and retail by HENRY BLAKLEY, St. Louis. Office and general depot, 169 Race Street, Philadelphia.

Carstarian System of Writing.

THE undersigned were present at the close of the session taught by Mr. A. B. SNEOS, teacher of the Carstarian System of Writing, in the vicinity of Marshall, Saline county, Missouri. We saw the specimens of many pupils exhibited at the commencement of the session, as well as those exhibited at the examination. We have never seen such improvements made in so short a time. Persons who could scarcely write their names at the commencement of the session, now write good commercial hands. We therefore recommend the system as superior to any with which we are acquainted. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Sneos. His deportment towards all is that of a gentleman. We visited the school frequently. He is kind and courteous to pupils, but at the same time preserves the strictest order.

Monthly Bulletin No. 7.

NOW is the season for

STOMACH AND BOWEL COMPLAINTS; and it is of unspeakable importance that the most reliable preventives and remedies be brought to public notice in every section of the country. This company would call the attention of medical men, parents, and nurses, and all others, to the CHILDREN'S PANACEA, a medicine which is unparalleled for its power over all the humors of children, whether of the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, the skin, or the general circulation. In Cholera Infantum (summer complaint), Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Wasting Away, Costiveness, Teething, &c. etc. it is infallible. No family should be a moment without it, as its timely use will save life, and carry the most feeble children through the summer. It is accompanied by careful and minute directions.

THE DYSENTERY SYRUP of this company is an infallible specific in this alarming disorder. It is warranted to cure, and if it should not the money will in all cases be refunded. Thousands of lives have been saved by its use. No matter how extreme the case, a cure is certain. Medical men and all others, should immediately procure a supply, and thus confer a great blessing on their respective patients, families, and communities.

The other medicines of the Graefenberg Company are too well known to need mention at this time. Suffice it to say that they are sought for with unexampled avidity, and are performing the most astonishing cures. Fever and Ague, Scrofula, Consumption, Bilious Fevers, &c. etc. are conquered by them. The Graefenberg Sarsaparilla Compound is taking the lead of all others, and contains double the number of doses of any other.

The General Agent for Missouri, is E. K. WOODWARD, St. Louis, to whom applications for agencies may be addressed.

EDWARD BARTON, Secretary.

Indian Vegetable Pills in the City of Mexico!—Great success among the Volunteers!—Letter from a High Sheriff of South Carolina!

Extract of a letter from the editor of the Greenville Mountaineer, S. C.

Dr. W. WRIGHT—Dear Sir:— * * *

A week or two ago I sent you a Mountaineer, containing a letter from one of our Volunteers in the City of Mexico, in which he pays WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, under the circumstances, the highest meed of praise I have ever known a medicine to receive. The Volunteer, William G. Goodlett, Esq., is a gentleman of fine standing, an accomplished and well educated man, and was recently
